

The Meeting Planners Privacy Policy

At The Meeting Planners we recognise the importance of privacy protection. The following outlines our policy. This policy may be varied from time to time.

General Information

Australia operates under the Privacy Amendment (Private Sector) Act 2000. The Conference Managers comply with such legislation which is designed to protect the right of the individual to privacy of their information. Information collected in respect of proposed participation in any aspect of the Conference will be only used for the purposes of planning and conduct of the Conference, may also be provided to organisers of future events or used to provide you with information of other relevant events. It is also usual to produce a 'Delegate List' of attendees at the Conference and to include the individual's details in such a list. Consent for publication of the individual's information may be withheld when completing the Registration Form for the Conference. Individuals are also entitled to access the information held by written application to the Conference Managers.

Website

You do not need to disclose your identity to use this website; this website does not use "cookies" or "web bugs". This website does not collect personal information about people who access the website, except where personal information is voluntarily supplied, such as when you choose to email us or when you request to be added to our Newsletter mailing list. Our internet server may automatically record details about any computer used to access the website (such as the IP address, domain name and browser type), the date and time of access, and details of the information downloaded. This information is used for statistical purposes and to improve this website.

Will we disclose information about you?

It is our policy not to sell or pass on any personal information that you may have provided to us unless we have your consent to do so. The exception to this is where we may be required by law to disclose certain information.

Your right to access information we hold about you

We will, on written request, provide you with access to any information that we have collected about you. To gain access to this information you should contact us at enquiry@meetingplanners.com.au or telephone +61 3 9417 0888.

Security of your Personal Information

We take reasonable steps to protect all information which we hold (including your personal information) from misuse, loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure. We take reasonable steps to hold information secure in an electronic or physical form. Information is stored in access controlled premises or in electronic databases requiring logins and passwords. All staff having access to confidential information are subject to confidentiality obligations.
